Hey Joe Cool,
thanks for letting me sign your yearbook.
I feel so honored to get to do this. Really Bob,
I always thought you were some kind of a nut since 7th grade. You must admit you did some pretty odd things back then. I have reevaluated my thoughts and I have come to the conclusion about you are hopelessly INSANE!!!
P.S. I enjoyed sitting next to you in class and never realizing a serious moment

Bob,
you have one of the strangest sense of humor I've ever run across. But it's funny. Free Enterprise would not be the same without you and Jame's fighting
I loved it when you came to school (or class) with that ear ring in your nose. I almost died.
I hope I'll see you around this summer. The class of '79 will be gone soon. Goodbye. It's hard to believe the time has gone so quickly.
See you.

Laura
Newland

Remember that first night that I met you boy was that any way I'm glad I met you. We should go party some time this summer (or when ever) I will try to get in touch with you when I get back from Hawaii so we can try out some good pot from over there. See ya

Love ya
Orien.

I know.
Well, you are a lady, that special guy, that I think alot about. I wish I could get to know you better. Now that school is over, I guess I won't see you any more. I really wish, I would see you this summer. Thanks for letting me sign your book, I was looking forward to it. Well have a great summer.

Dearest Bob,

You are one of the guys
I will remember ^{my} most.
This will properly sound very stupid, but you always try to act so cool and I smile cos you're so cute.

One thing's so sad and that's that many always get pissed whenever I'm with you.
I tell you, if you ever go over to Sweden, be sure to look me up and I can show you what the expression
"country of free love means".
I like partying with you.
If you get bored this summer,
don't hesitate to call me up.

"Super Prune" Steve Jones entertains at the elections assembly to help get out the vote for Amy Smith. It must have worked — Amy won!

Now that the buildings are finished, groundsmen from the district are kept busy planting trees and shrubs on campus.

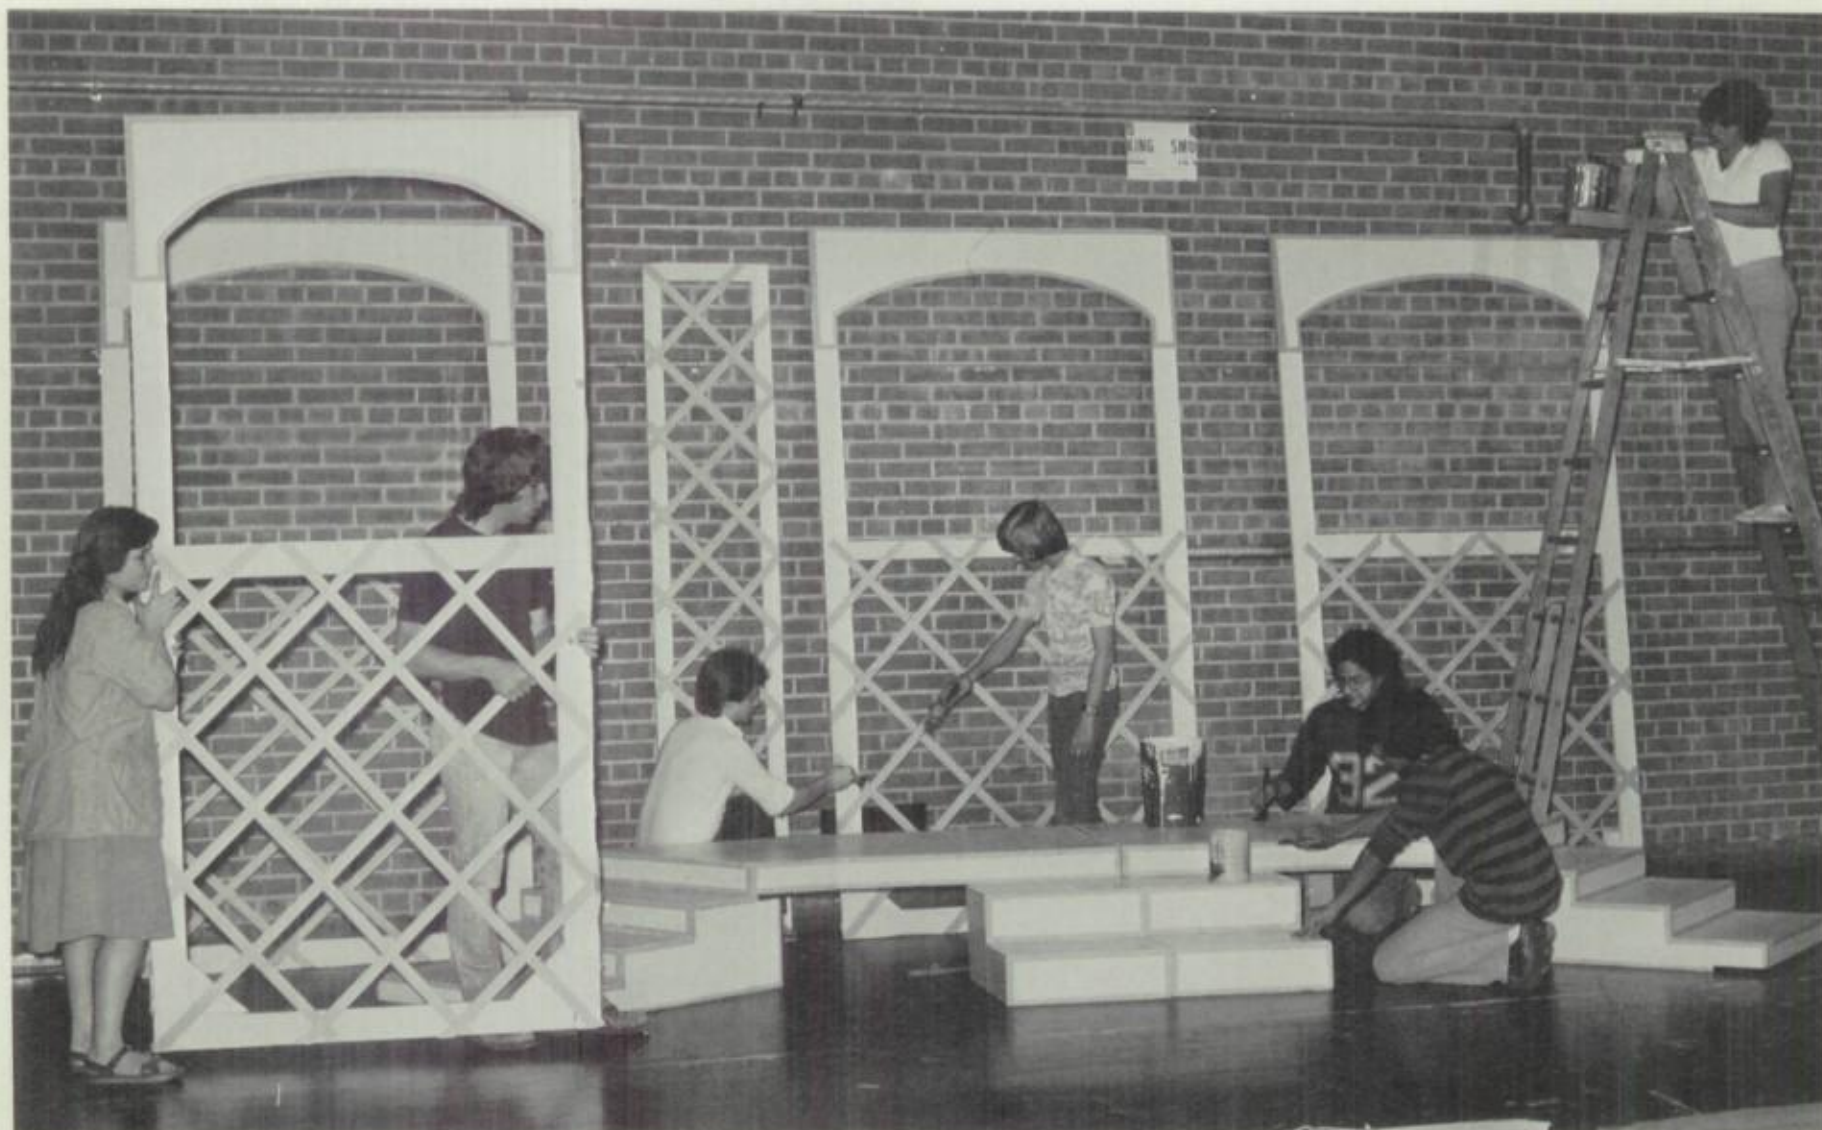

Mr. Ljubicich and Mike Thomas discuss his project for the District Solar Energy Contest while Jim Greene and John Wentz appear to be shirking their duties during the 6th. period Drafting class.

OK Mr. Page — what are you saying to keep all these students attentive during your 4th. hour Physics class?

Girls League did it again! Playing "Cupid" comes naturally for these girls and the Val-Gram sale helped to brighten the annual February 14th. event.

Working on set decorations for the Junior Miss Pageant are students from Mrs. Beliveau's stagecraft class.

*Best wishes - next year will be better!
Sue Hardesty*

Miss Sue Hardesty, A/V coordinator, in an unusual picture. New to West this year, she usually is on the other end of the cameras helping students use the new color video cameras.

"Super Liz" or just normal Liz Saliba to others fights her sister Jo Anne to save an "old lady's" purse during the Student Government speeches.

Sell, Sell, Sell must've been the slogan for all the school clubs this year. Whatever it was: cookies, pies or even tamales, there was always something on sale in the Munch area to satisfy students appetites.

. . . and another thing Taborda, quit looking at the camera and start listening while Mr. Munson explains to his 6th. period Health class how to keep the victim warm after an accident.

The new T.V. studio, located in the IMC building, is very modern and useful for the many audio-visual and media classes.

With the Luke Air Force band accompanying, Sergeant Bruce Fidler sings "Play That Funky Music."

Behind the Christmas decorated desk sits Ava Hartman, student assistant in the counselling department.

The cheer line "freaks out" as the name Linda Cassells is announced over the P.A. system as a Homecoming nominee for Queen.

It looks as though a mechanical hand is rigged up to deliver class rings to West High Students.

You're generous Warren! People felt mixed emotions after giving blood at the Key Club Blood Drive.

At the all day dance assembly, Sherry Shortlidge, Kira Burch, and Sherry Tope dance to "Little Drummer Boy."

Telling the Student body about CHALLENGE, a backpacking club, is member Ben Ederer.

R.O.T.C. members assist Open House by helping parents find those lost classrooms.

Sophomore Greg Tunney finds that the new drinking fountains located in the I.M.C., really give out cold water.

"Laverne and Shirley", or rather, Lori Flores and Janine Giodano show how great Wishy detergent works in their Semantics and Logic class.

Nominees for Homecoming royalty were announced and given carnations at the stadium assembly on the day of the Camelback game.

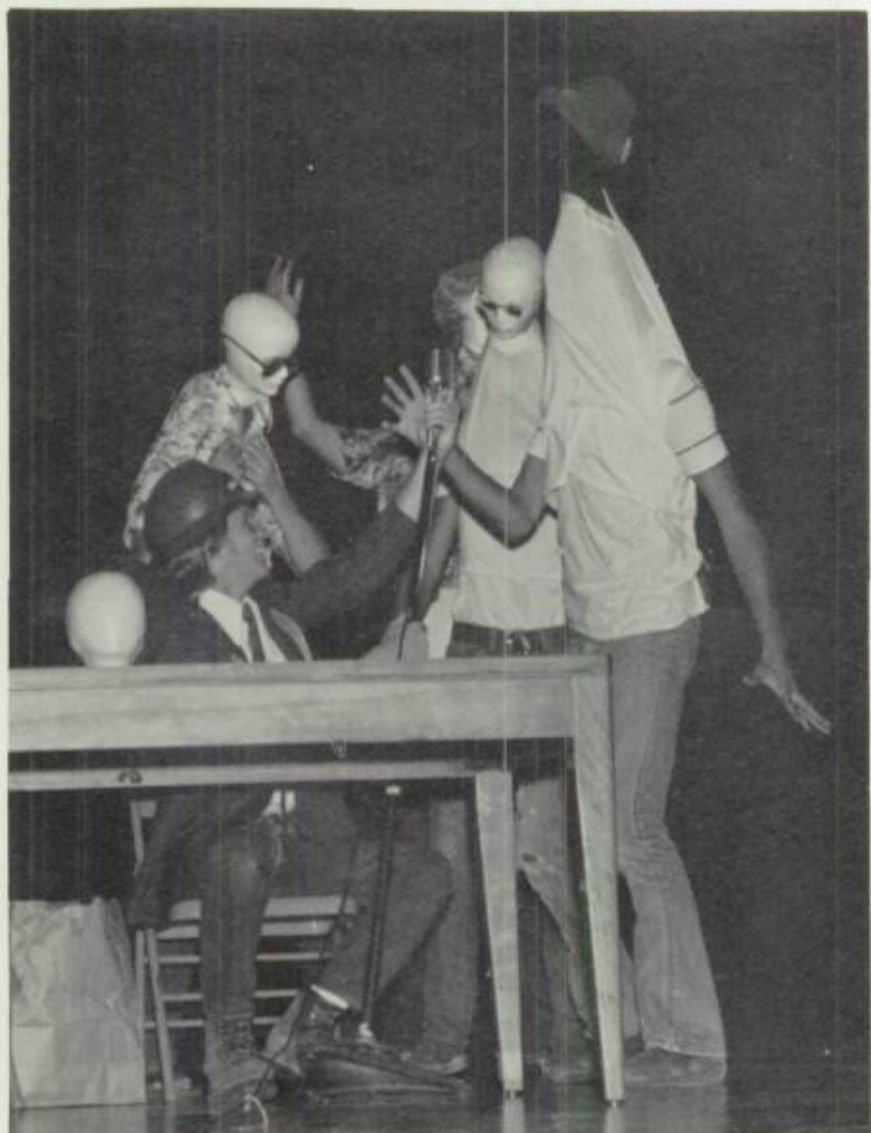

During the football games the snack bar comes in handy for the hungry fan's "munchies."

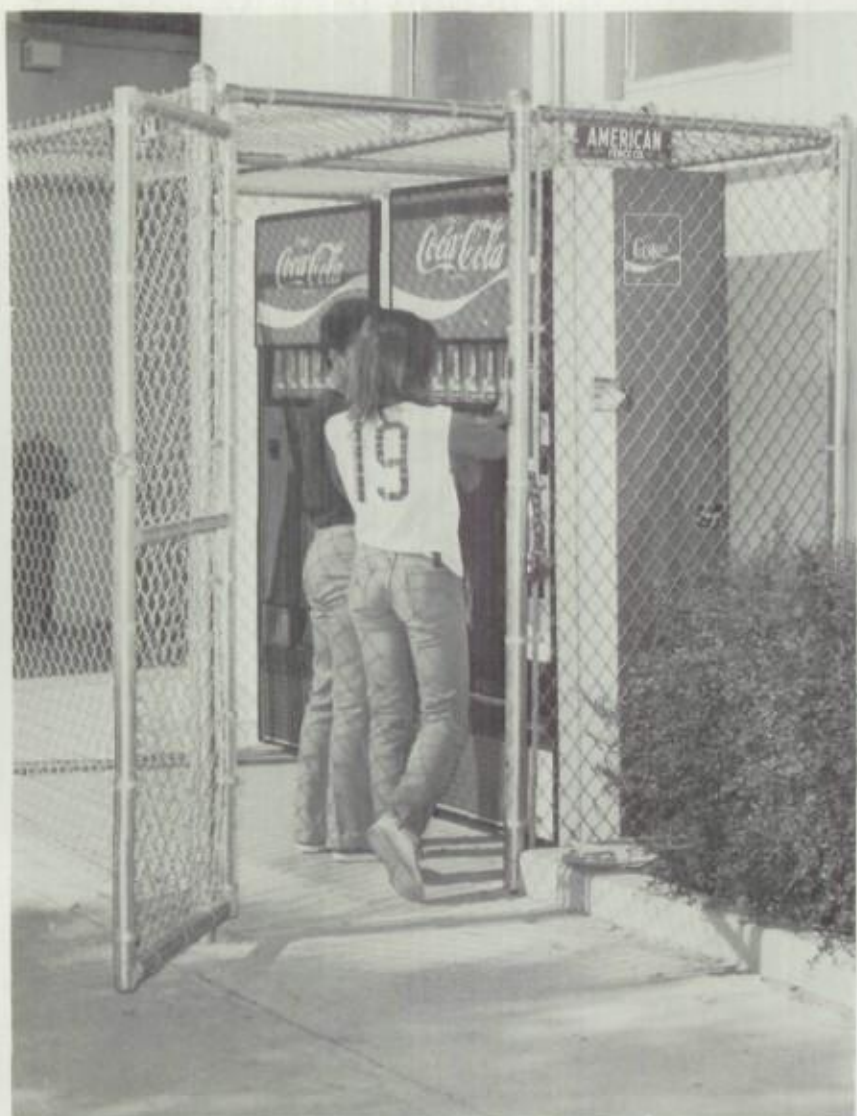

One of the hassles of 2nd Semester is registering for new classes.

Warren Asmus interviews the "heads" at the Student Government Assembly.

Mr. and Mrs. Wendall Smith tour West during Open House.

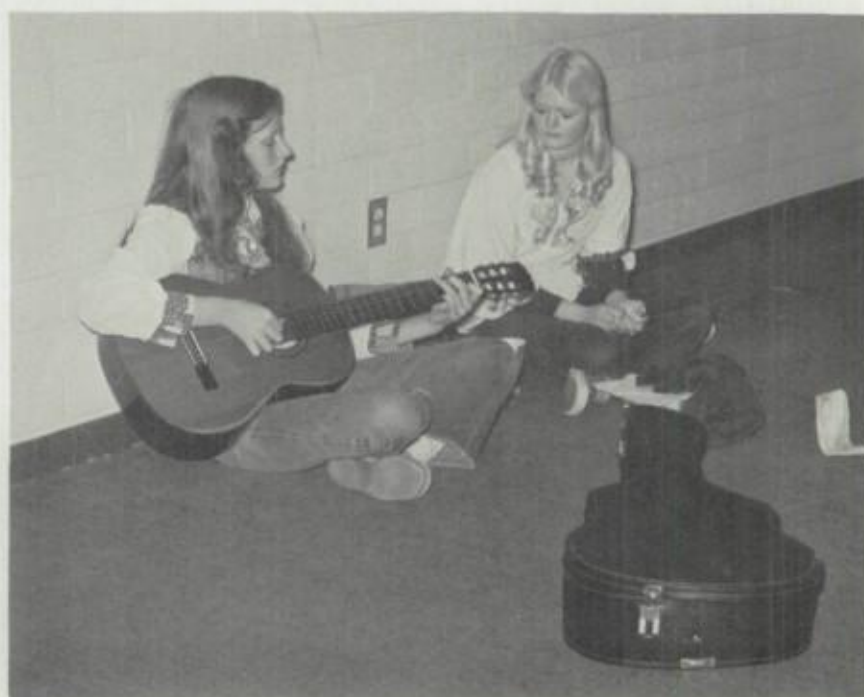

All fenced in, the two student government coke machines get a visit from a couple who felt the need for a refreshing drink.

Looking over the list of those who had checked into the Health Center for the day are student assistants Diane Paulsen and Linda Wisniewski.

In their usual relaxation spot in the lobby of the main building, four freshmen talk over the day's events.

Music can certainly do wonders for a tired mind. Lisa Shepp strums her guitar while Shawna Jackson listens, as they both relax in a Music Building corridor during their lunch period.

Anyone needing information about a career should check with Mrs. Faye Jenkins in the IMC building.

Are you nervous girls? The gymnastic class gets ready to perform during half-time at the Phoenix Union football game.

I hope Fred Marguez doesn't reflect what that arrow on Mary Ann Acosta's T-shirt seems to indicate.

Work — work — work! The members of Mrs. Moser's sixth period basic art class seem to be busily engaged in many types of perspective drawings.

my dearest Bob,
your one of the most kind hearted guys I know.
I'm not kidding either!! There's something very different and special about you. Bob, there were some times I really would have liked to have some good talks with ya. I want ya to know that you always can talk to me about anything. I wish things would have worked out a little better between you and, you know who,

but really Bob, we had some good ol' times in that class of Lundgrens!

SENIOR

The senior class realized a profit of $329.00 on the dance after the Homecoming game against Camelback and also grossed $60.00 from the sale of "slaves." An all night party was planned to help raise money toward the purchase of the class gift to the school. The disco dance, held in March rounded out their activities according to advisors Mrs. Cripps and Mr. Rose.

A SHORT REVIEW OF THE CHRISTMAS PERFORMANCES

Reaching for the sky, Sherry Shortlidge and Deana Simpson prepare for their next gymnastic stunt during the Christmas show in the Gym.

Marianne Curtis, Julie Jones and Betsy Jordan dance to that catchy Christmas tune "Mary's Little Boy Chile." Sorry we cut you out of the picture Bets.

Chestnuts, Annette Miller, Sherrill Rhode and Lisa Laos sparkle as they roast over an open fire.

The Gymnastic and dance classes applaud in appreciation of their fellow performers.

To brighten the mood of the Assembly, the beginning chorus sang the traditional "Rudolph the Red-Nosed Reindeer" as student teacher Miss Jeri Yoffee directed.

With the cafeteria decorated in the Christmas spirit, it didn't look like the same place where students eat lunch during the week.

These two honeys sell honey bears to support the band and the school.

Miss Prather and Donna Anderson look over all the beautiful items to buy.

Anyone for a pop over? Mr. and Mrs. Joseph sell delicious Indian Fried Bread to satisfy the customers' appetites.

As people left, they purchased their items from Mrs. Belevau at the cash register.

Hmmm, wonder what Senior Barragon is smiling about?

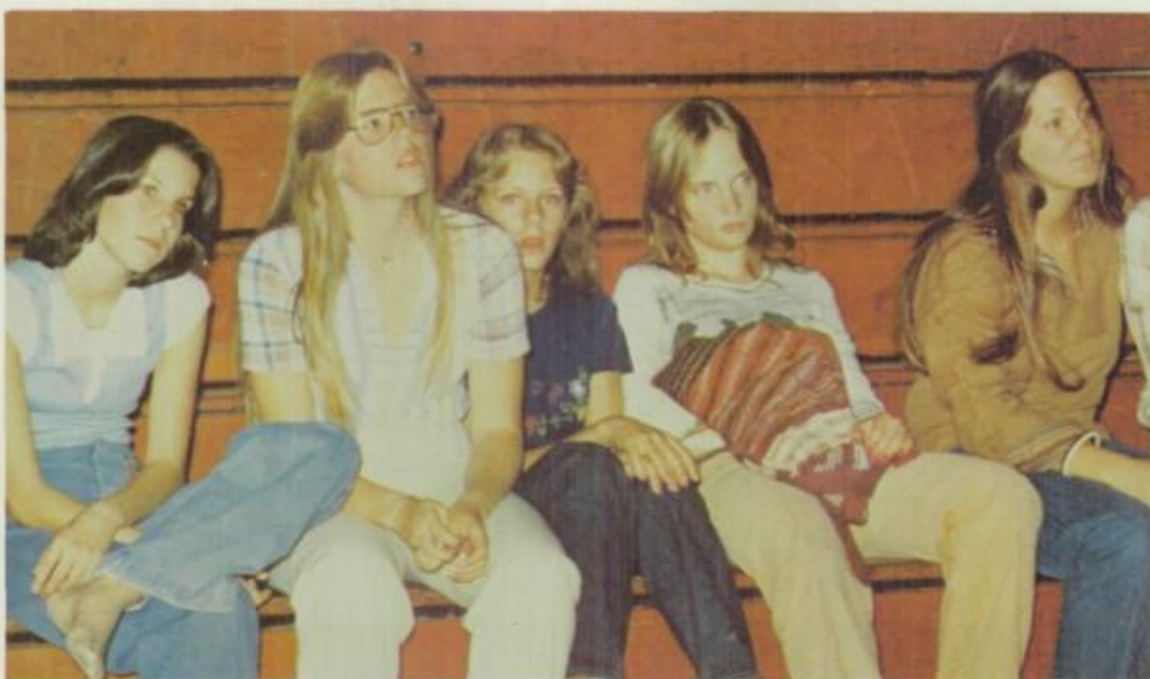

Miss Bertha Flood and Helen McPhillips sell small pictures and needlepoint. Behind them are colorful Gods' eyes.

Photogenic Santa waves hi to the photographer with a ho ho ho. Do you see any resemblance?

Confusion, chaos and cramped quarters created havoc at the first dance of the year.

One of the activities at the dances is holding down the benches as they rest between dances.

Coming together for a little chat at the first dance are Tyrolee Bower, Donna Hitterman, Pat Murphy and Sheri Kovac.

Hey Warren Asmus and David Lowe, did you know this is what Annette and Michelle looked like before the Semi?

Junior Mike Morrison at the camera controls and Denise Morin with the shutter release constitute one of the teams that photographed underclass pictures here at West. Two packet sizes were offered and over 85% of the students purchased personal pictures.

Members of the Yearbook staff took turns pulling cards, signing receipts, making name changes and trying to keep students in order during the four day period when the classes were photographed. All students on roll #3 had the delightful experience of returning to be re-photographed when it was learned that the film was loaded wrong!!

JUNIOR

Traditionally, the Junior class project which demands a great effort is the Junior-Senior Prom. Over $1,500.00 was spent for this evening held at the Adams Hotel. Part of the necessary money for the event was raised through the sale of programs at ASU football games and at the Fiesta Bowl. Co-advisors for the class were Mrs. Ward and Mr. Ranshaw.

Over fifty band members helped with the car wash held in October at the Exxon station on the corner of 7th Avenue and Osborn.

Mini wheels day, a part of Homecoming activities, brought out a large group of 4-wheelers.

The Sophomore class started off their year by sponsoring a record dance after the third football game which had a pre-sale of $38.00 and a total gross profit of $384.00. The advisors, Miss Follett and Mr. Howell, were quite impressed by the lack of meetings called by the council during the first semester. Despite the lack of communication they did complete a float in time for the Homecoming game.

Lee Anne Sergent, Lisa Blair, Brenda Alston, and Cissy Chavez, from the beginning dance class, portray children's toys during the all day Christmas program in the gym.

Computers can be used for many things, including computer games. Here students from Mr. Baum's math classes play "Escape from Devil's Island" on their lunch hour.

David Young, Chris Bacon, and Brian Lavery work on a T.V. program in the I.M.C. studio.

The first dance of the school year was held in the cafeteria as construction on the gym was not complete. Even with the chairs stacked in depth there was little room for dancing.

The "fantastic" Freshmen did a beautiful job in their first year at West. With the guidance of their advisors, Mrs. Debi Roman and Mr. Frank Downey, they participated in several Homecoming activities and won the award for the "Most Original" with their float. Netting $21.38 with a noon "slave" sale helped get the class treasury started, and by mid-year they had $217.00 in their account in the bookstore.

Sophie Kettner changes the pictures in the display board and at the I.M.C. building. She is putting Christmas pictures for

On a cold, cloudy vacation morning workmen took out the full grown trees in the quad. Later, young new evergreen trees were put in.

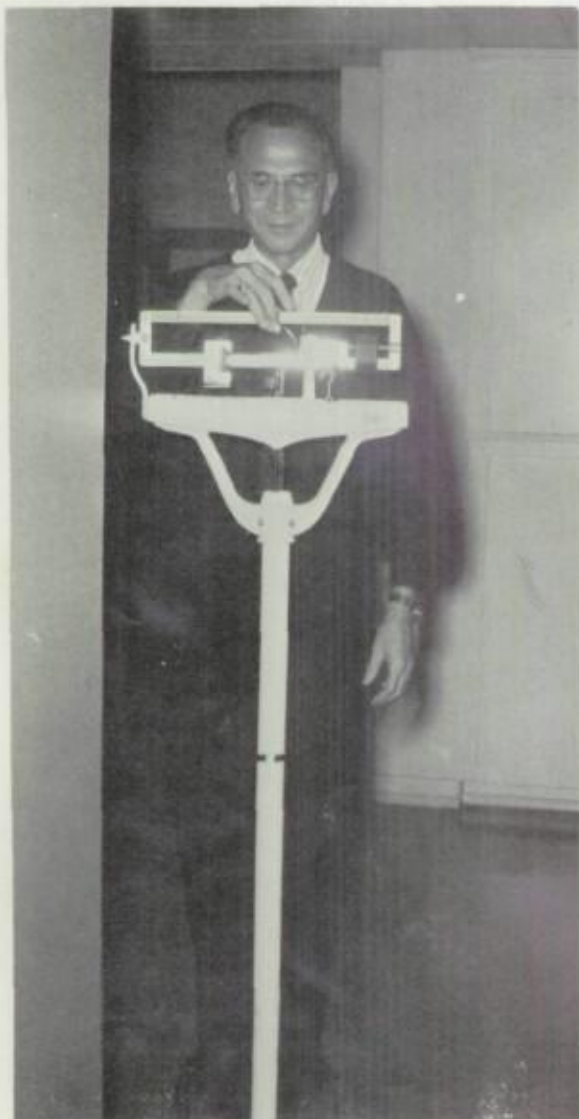

Teddy, Debbie, Shawna and others sit on the tumbling mats waiting to perform at the Phoenix Union game.

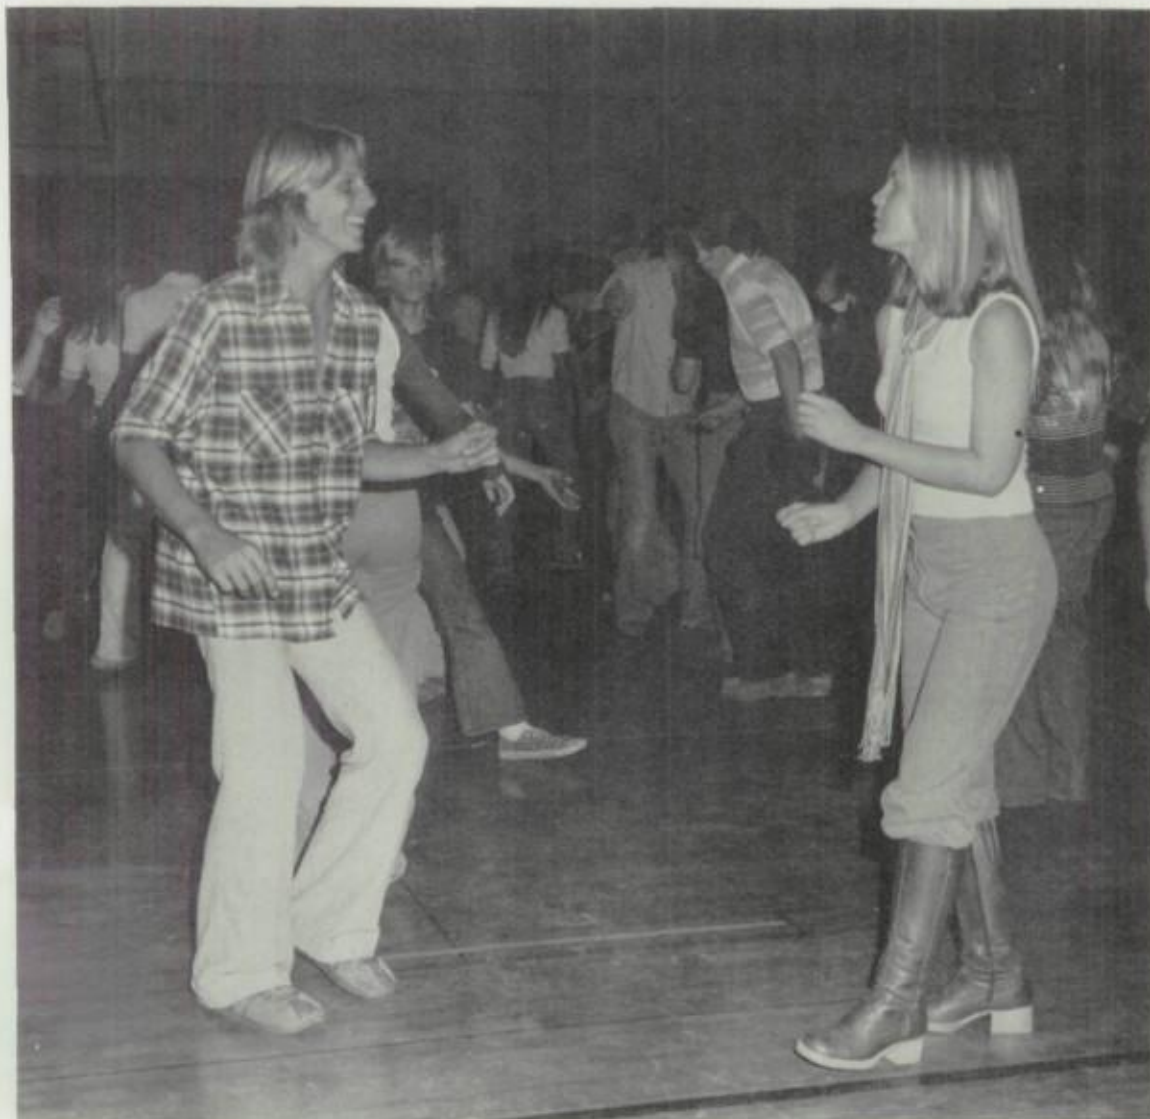

At the last football game the West High stage band provided entertainment at the home game even though the score was 0-6!

What you see is not an optical illusion — there really is a double for every student in this 6th. period dance class!

Mr. Romo checks his weight daily to keep from becoming "sobrepesado."

Even though we lost the football game against East, Alex Bassalay and Kelly Smith can still "Get up and Boogie."

Lisa Stava, Anne Timberlake, Sherry Shortlidge and Molly Bishop serve as sort of a Male Review Board during the 5th. period lunch.

Hoping to join Concert Band, students in 6th. period Intermediate Band work on improving their skills.

West came from behind to tie Scottsdale in this early meet. Shown is the start of the 200 free style.

Study halls are not all they're cracked up to be. In Mr. Matheson's 4th hour class, there are some who study and there's one boy who seems to be practicing his dramatics.

Is Cindy Barber dancing?

Class rings offer a lasting memory of West High. Picking up theirs from the Josten's representative are Senior Orien Smith and several other students.

I LOVE HER
BUTT

Watch those muscles flex!

Lisa Van der Steur tells how it is to be "Joe uninvolved" at the Student Government assembly.

Who's going to get the ball, Mr. Glasenapp or Dewey Hopper?

Putting her bare feet into the swing, Gwan Jöplin really gets into the swing following the East game. Her partner seems to be wrapped up in Gwan.

Really getting involved, the cheer line wakes up the crowd with a "Rowdie" cheer.

Chowing down at the Open House are Mr. Dye and friends.

Our friends the "Heads" seem to have had a little accident.

Mr. Mansour, alias the "Wooden Duckie," C.B.'s his way across the stage at the Student Government assembly.

Steve Abril and Mace Kuester talk about what Homecoming means to the football team at the stadium assembly.

One, two, three kick. This foursome does a little dance to "Jingle Bell Rock."

The Senior float, covered with memories, won the competition for "Most Pertaining to Theme."

Pudding, strawberry shortcake, pie, or cake? — Decisions, decisions!

Dreaming along together, the happy couples float across the floor to one of those very smooth slow numbers.

Moonlight and Roses was the theme of this year's Christmas Semi, sponsored by Key Club and Girls' League. The band, Destiny, played as Debbie Marshall and John Propati were crowned King and Queen. A raffle was held and many people won a free dinner or ice cream. The number of couples attending broke all the previous records.

What's yours? But cookies or both?

Teri Kleppe and her date Randy have their picture taken so they can remember for years to come the wonderful time they had at the Semi.

It looks like Selwyn Lewis and Paula McCue have a touch of "boogie fever."

Duff McCampbell and Christy Marlowe finish announcing the new Christmas Semi King and Queen along with their attendants.

John, Warren, and David are working diligently to have everything ready before the first couples arrive.

On arrival, couples are greeted by Den and Vickie Vaughn and his partner, Lisa Laris.

What's everybody looking at?
Must be something interesting.

Smiles along with tears come from those nominated for Homecoming King and Queen. They are pinned with felt badges and carnations while they stand in front of the student body at the assembly.

The new I.M.C. provides ample space for meeting with friends or meeting with books.

The Air Force Stage Band really got into it while playing a brassy theme from "Swat," which brought a loud applause from the crowd.

Tammy White must be saying something very interesting for everyone to be looking in her direction.

The combined efforts of the students filled the auditorium with sounds of a "rainstorm" during the Student Government assembly.

Junior Kelly Moore doesn't seem at all interested in what Scott Lyler, Kirk Kashmerick and Cindy Fendler are talking about.

Senior Kelly Vaughn, lab. asst. for Mr. Stitt, records scores of students during first semester exam week.

Smash! Bang! Boom! Grab the ball! Mr. Roche's 6th. period P.E. class really gets into basketball!

Sophomore Tracy Wilson getting prepared to do a little homework as she loads up books from Locker L-1063.

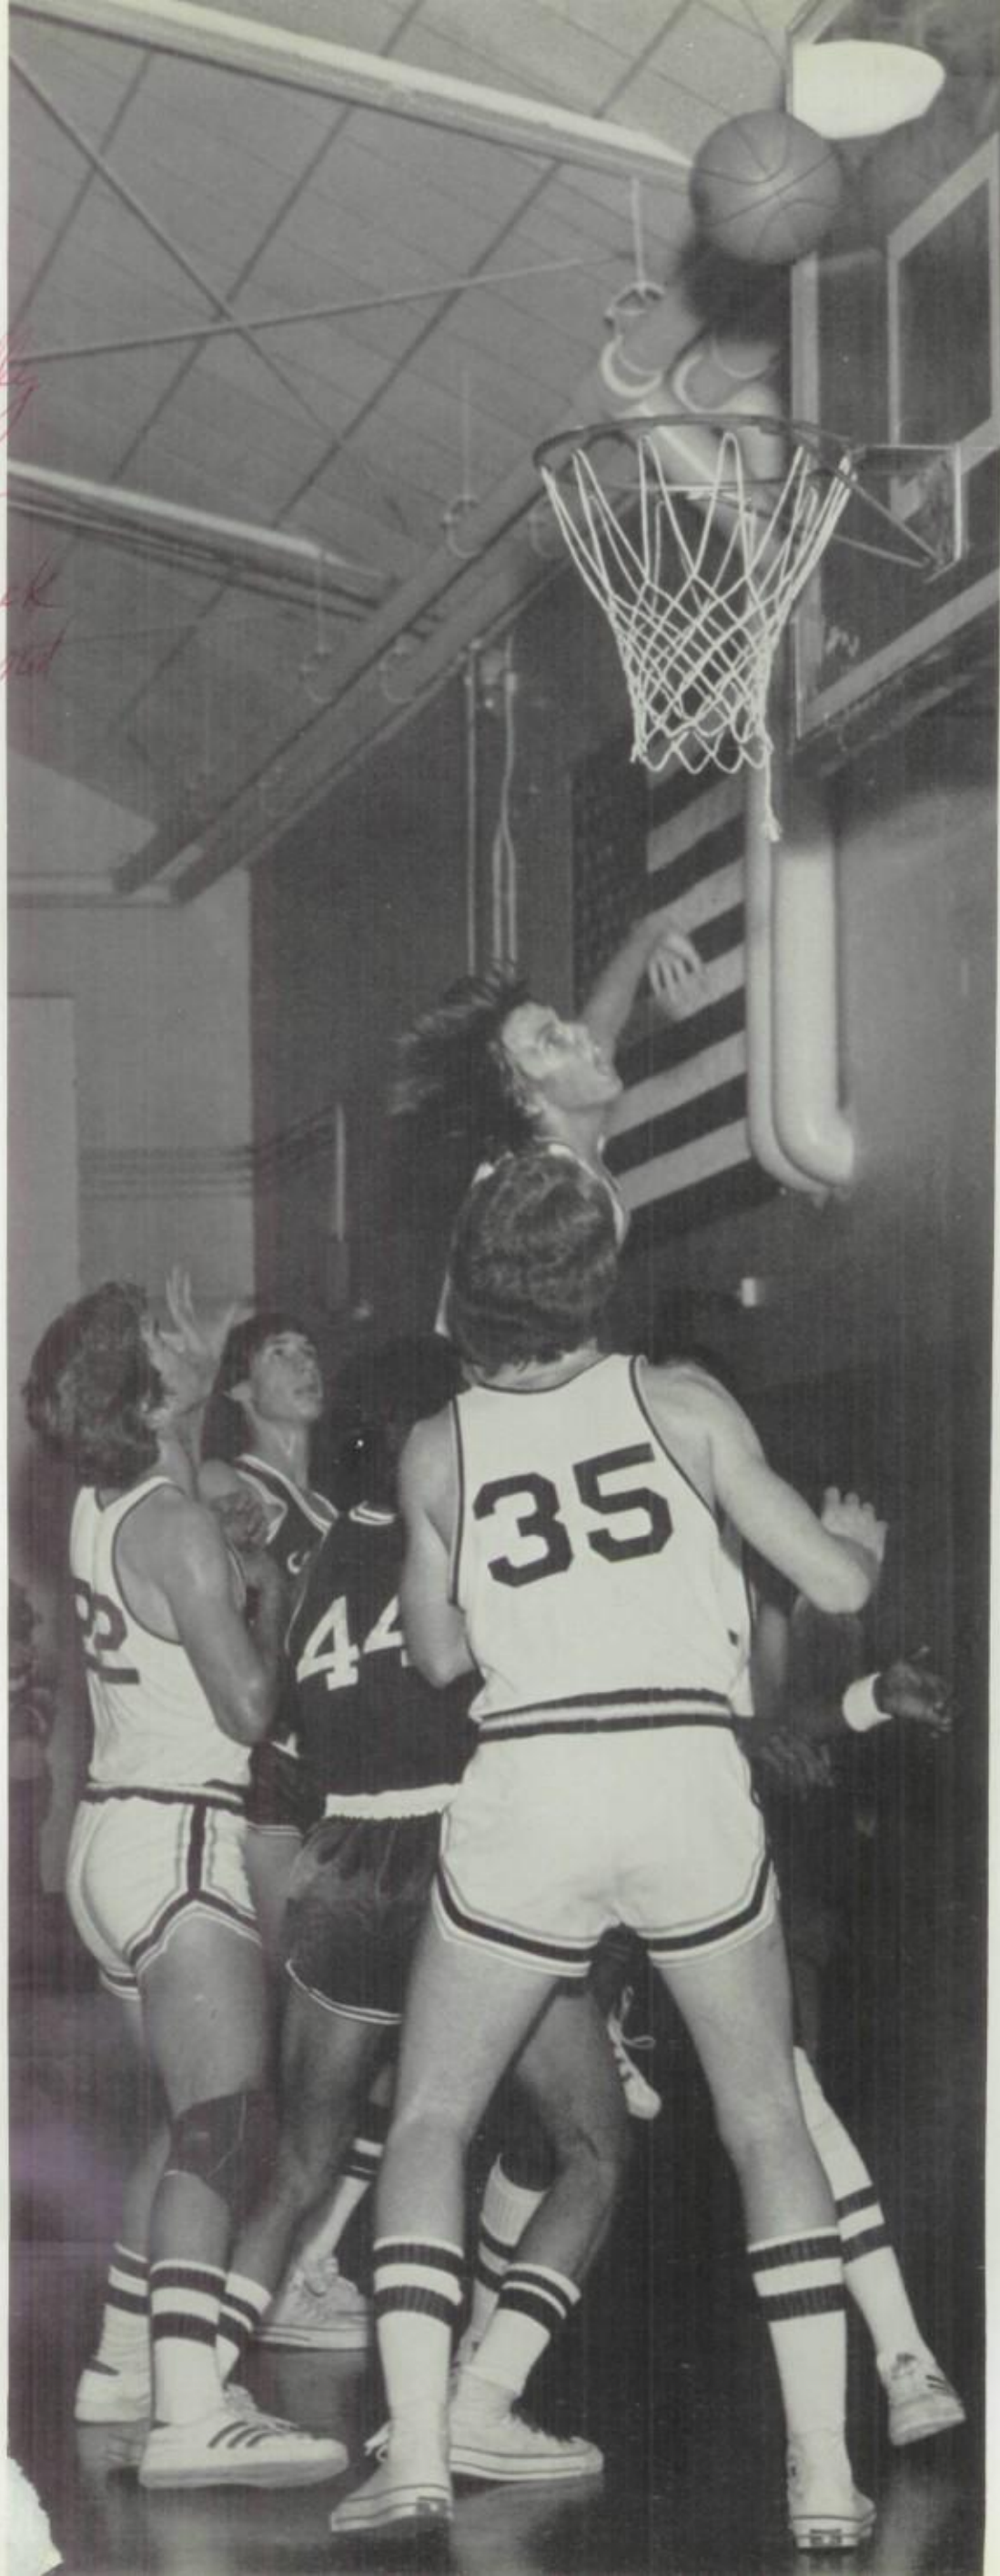

Introduction to Algebra? Seems as if some students in Mr. Baum's class would rather not like to meet the subject.

Well Bob,

Looks like another year's come and gone and isn't it great. I don't know ^{you} to well but you seem to be a really nice guy. I'm glad I got to know you the little bit that I did. I really wish you the best of luck through out your life and to be happy. Take care.

THAT'S 15 YARDS! If Ron Carlson grabs the Prescott ball carrier by that face mask, it will cost the Thunderbirds a big penalty. Ben Ederer (88) and Mace Kuester move into help Ron make the stop.

FOOTBALL

A CRUNCHING BLOW! Hitting him high and low, Steve Kline and a teammate give that Washington Ram a crunching wallop. Jim Gwin (56), Chris Shaw (35), Mace Kuester (79), and Ben Ederer are closing in on the action.

A GREASED PIGSKIN! That elusive ball seems to be slipping away from even the Central receiver. Steve Abril (25) is grasping nothing but air as Mark Brown (87) is moving in on the action.

ANOTHER AERIAL FIRED! Sprinting out to the left side, varsity tailback Kevin Bethay fires a quick pass over the heads of the very aggressive Central Bobcat defensemen.

CUT HIM OFF! With full steam up, Brian Cummings (46) and Dino McCarthy hustle to cut off the Camelback ball carrier before he can turn the corner and scoot away for a long gain.

ON HIS WAY! With plenty of blocking ahead of him, Kevin Bethay (28) races on his way to a big gain in the upset win over Prescott. That big, slow Badger isn't about to catch up with Kevin.

STOP THAT BADGER! It looks like the Prescott quarterback is running for his life as Joe Krah (66) Ro Carlson (36) and Jim Gwin (56) close in on him to stop his forward progress.

ONE BIG LEAP! It seems that Washington High defender is taking a mighty leap to try to stop West's Ben Ederer from breaking away for a big gain. Steve Abril (25) trails the action.

EYEING THEIR TARGET! Dave Thomas (27) and Chris Shaw (35) have their sights set on the Longhorn ball carrier as their target for the action in this play.

Opening the 1976 season with a big 7-6 upset victory over Prescott, the future looked good for the Thunderbird varsity eleven. However, this was to be the only bright spot as West's gridders, with their ranks thinned by injuries, were stopped in the remaining games on their schedule.

Led by Steve Abril, who was selected on the all-division first team, and Mace Kuester, chosen for division second team honors, the varsity almost topped both Trevor Brown and Carl Hayden but fell in the last minute of play.

Coach Craig Thies, first-season head man, also singled out Kevin Bethay, Jim Gwin, Chris Shaw, Lee Penick, David Thomas, and Paul Garcia for their efforts.

Our defensive line didn't have it so easy either. c a'12aW

Although their record showed only three wins against seven losses, the Junior varsity football squad came up with a big first — a 26-22 win over South High — the first win ever by a J.V. eleven against the Rebels. The two other victories came in games against Carl Hayden and Phoenix Union.

Named by their coaches as possible varsity talent for next season were Louis Martin, Dave Zeppetella, Mike Thomas, Rick Inman, Bob Carrillo, Rick Caldwell, Al Tinnell, Mark Guss, and Bud Schildts.

SITTIN' 'N WAITIN' — These freshmen A gridders seem to have many ways to express their interests in the action as each waits to get into the game.

HIT THE DIRT! Players are scattered all over the turf as they get into the action in the battle between the freshmen A squad and the South's Rebs.

Freshman A football players were: Randy Austin, Arlen Bethay, Richard Biggs, Tony Bourque, Irvin Bisnov, Joe Callaway, Eddie Carlson, Paul Charbonneau, Fernando Fernandez, Robert Gwin, Randy Horton, Ron Hoyos, Elton Johnson, Victor Knäpp, Arnold Martinez, Robin McKinney, Keith Merritt, Sky Moore, John Owens, Dan Salinas, Jon Self, Richard Soto.

The staff of the Westerner wishes to express their regret that the pictures of the freshmen football teams did not turn out satisfactory and it was too late to have them retaken.

CROSS COUNTRY

Running became a winning effort for the girls' cross country team as they finished with a 7 and 3 record for the year. Judy Kokali, Teresa Gentry and Cheryl Myers led Coach Joanne Johnson's runners as they went on to place fourth in the division finals.

West's varsity harriers, who had been only 3 and 8 in dual meets, shocked everyone but themselves by running to a fifth place finish in the Phoenix division meet and earning a right to compete in the state championship. This was the first cross-country squad since 1970 to qualify for the state finals.

Coach Rey Cruz's runners were paced by seniors Kevin McKechnie, Ed Cramer, and Scott Lorent. However, with 18 returning runners from varsity, J.V., and frosh competition, the outlook for the future looks very bright. The jayvee harriers captured a third place in the city championships while the freshmen gained a second place finish.

Winning was their way! This was evident in the final results accumulated by the varsity volleyball squad which scored a total of 20 victories while losing only twice.

Led by Patti Bycroft, Marianne Curtis, Annette Miller and Candy Abril, Coach Pence's team blasted its way to championships in the Arcadia Invitational Tournament and the Phoenix Divisional Tourney and grabbed off third place in the state finals.

Patti was selected on the all-A team and the division all-star squad; Marianne was picked for the A League team, the divisional all-stars, and second team state all-stars; Annette was named on the division and state squads; and Candy was on the all-league team. Setting themselves up for shots at varsity positions in 1977, the J.V. volleyballers netted a 10-2-0 record for their 1976 campaign.

BADMINTON

Dee Dee Murphy took top honors for the 1976 badminton squad, placing fifth in the state championships.

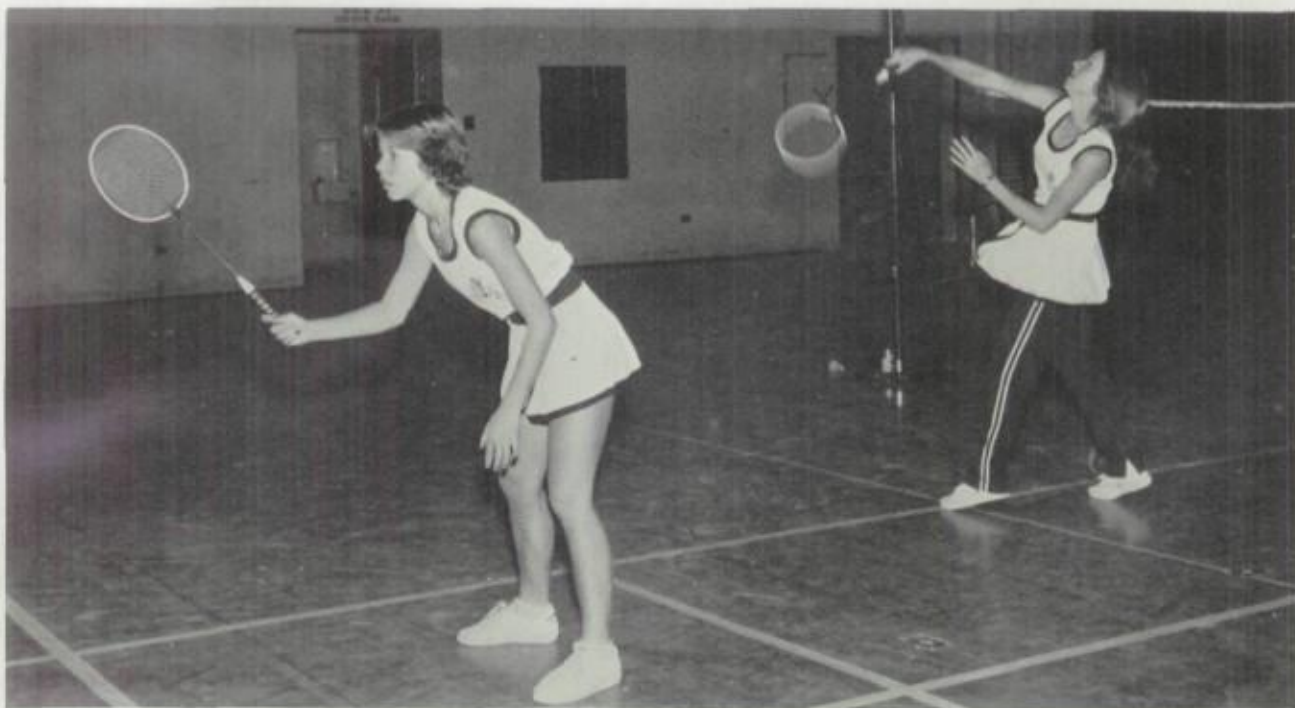

Coach Paula Noel's team smashed their way to eight wins against only four defeats for their season, losing three of their contests by only a single match, 4-5.

Pleased with the team's improvement, Coach Noel is looking forward to even a stronger group next fall.

SWIMMING

A youthful group of girls splashed their way to a 2-4-1 record in their initial season of competition. Coach Dave Schumann, whose squad was 70 per cent freshmen and sophomores, singled out Shari Wingenroth, Sue Furry, Michelle Endres, and La Dawn Maddox as the outstanding individual performers. Twelve members of the team qualified for the division meet and seven of the girls went on to state competition. BASKETBALL Going through a season without a victory is a difficult situation for a team, its coach and their fans — but it does happen, and this year it happened to us, as the varsity basketball team dropped all 21 games. This team, however, along with their coach and many of their followers, did not give up at any point during the schedule. The varsity five, consisting mostly of juniors, gained valuable experience while going against some of the best cagers in the state and should be a much improved squad next year. Singled out by Coach Fred Roche for their efforts for the season were: John Irvine, Tim Kucharski, Sam Hilliard and Wendall Oliphant.

GOLF

Although this year's girls' golf team rolled up only three wins against eight losses, Mary Stewart, in individual play, carried West's colors through the two big tournaments of the year. Mary placed third in division competition and was fifth in state. In her first year with the team, Coach Diana Wales was pleased with the linksters seasonal efforts and their performance in the division tourney.

Highlighting the 76-77 varsity wrestling season was John Drexler's fourth place finish in the state tournament. John took most of the honors for the team this year by placing in all the major wrestling tournaments including a first at Chaparral and a second in division finals. Coach Bill Hutcherson's squad scored four wins in dual matches but lost to six opponents. Along with Drexler, Rick Jones and Joey Krah qualified for state. Mace Kuester, who would have probably made the final matches, was cut down by a shoulder injury in late season competition.

SOFTBALL

Winners of the Christmas tournament and first place finishers in Phoenix A League play, this year's varsity softball players gave their fans many thrills on the way to winning 18 out of 21 contests.

Led by pitchers Dee Dee Murphy and Annette Miller, Coach Paula Noel's squad won four of their first six games and then ran up 14 straight victories before losing a 2-0 heartbreaker to Carl Hayden in the division playoffs to close out the season.

Coach Noel was very impressed with her team's strong, positive attitude and with the effort they were willing to put forth to achieve success.

The jay vee nine, who finished their season with a 7-7 record, was loaded with freshmen and sophomores, and this group of girls should add much talent to the varsity in the next few years.

A LITTLE PEPPER! Getting ready to make things hot for their opposition, the varsity softballers go through one of their warm-up drills. Mari Engel is about to swat the ball while Janice Carrillo, Marianne Curtis, Annette Miller, Liz Maldonado and Debbie Yehling also get into the activity.

WESTERNER

It is the sincere desire of the Westerner staff that you the citizens of West High will be able to better relive this past year through the photographs printed on these pages. Not all school events have been covered — press deadlines had to be kept and we were working with a different printer this year. West is still the only school in the Phoenix area to print Senior pictures in full color. There was a small delay in finishing some of the underclass pictures but they were ready before the Christmas holidays.

CONCERT CHOIR

A concert tour to California and new formal uniforms highlighted the years activities of West's outstanding Concert Choir. While this years choir was the smallest in the schools 26 year history, it demonstrated an exciting quality of accuracy and spirit rarely achieved by high school groups. Much praise has been showered upon the choir by members of the community who have heard the choir in its more than thirty performances this year. A highlight of the concert season was the appearance before West's entire faculty at a recent in-service workshop. A musical "Sentimental Journey through the 40's" earned a standing ovation from the audience. Patti Baird and Kaylene Marshall accompanied the choir at the piano.

ORCHESTRA

The West High Concert Orchestra was an outstanding musical organization again this year. They gave three formal concerts in our Auditorium. They also performed for the Christmas Assembly and did programs at the Valley Center, The Colonnade and Park Central. They were also selected again this year to play for the Arizona Junior Miss Pageant. In addition to this they appeared in the West High Music Festival and the Arizona State University Regional Music Festival. They were also well represented in the All-State Orchestra.

Bob,

I am glad we got to know each other this year alot better. If your smart you will stay away from you-know-who 'Cay' I hear bad reputations spread easily. Why do you think I am staying away. Bb settle down with some nice girl & have an abundance of kids. I never did butt into your business with Karen, but if you want to go on trying, be ~~be~~ my guest. You must call or come over to see me this summer, & I mean it. So Bob Good Luck with you-know-who but I am warning you. Well take care & Be Good.

Love ya' Always

Lori

Bob if you don't want me to sign your Book you can erase it, well I really had fun doing all that stuff at Bushas & Kiedden around. You got a real good personality and have good retrospects for life, I hope you still stay in touch and whatever is getting you down goes away. Let me know when you get your classy car. Have fun at Buckeye this summer. See you later

FACULTY

PRINCIPAL

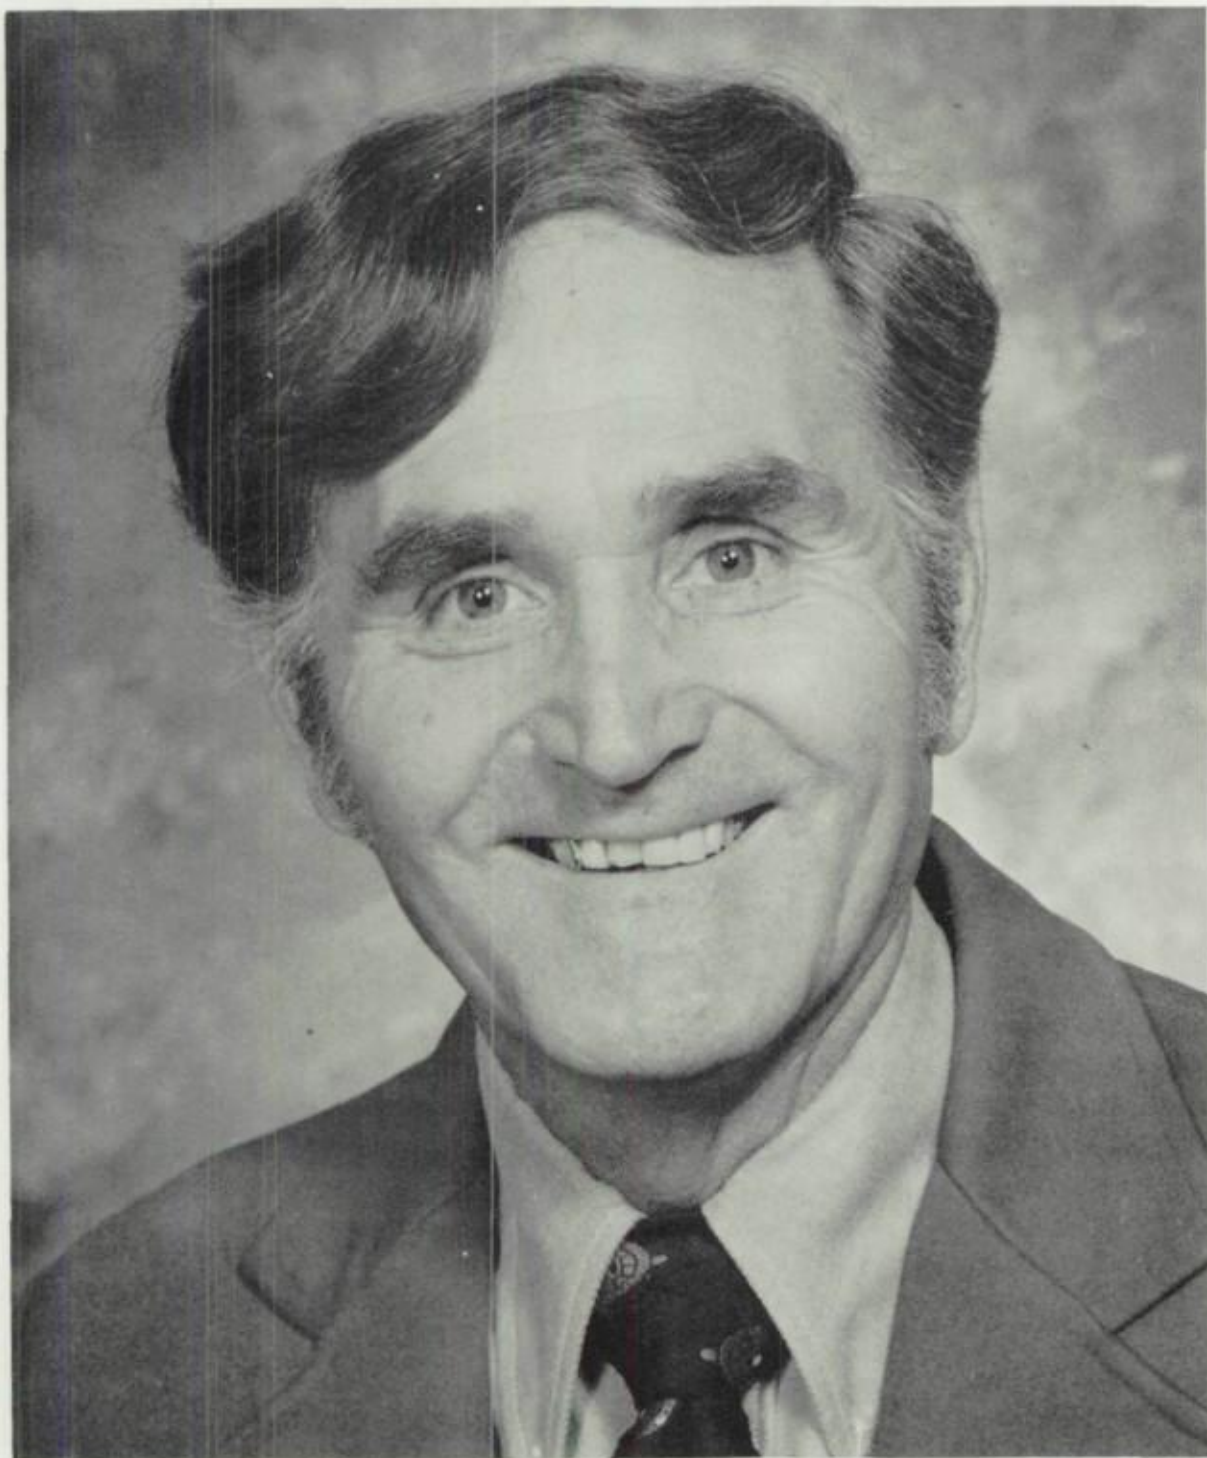

What a year 1976-77 has been! The new IMC completed and open — the remodeling complete and refrigeration throughout our campus — a new look to the outside of our buildings — extensive landscaping either completed or underway — our old buildings so changed that they look like brand-new and are just as good as brand-new — “prep” periods gone after many years — a new and tougher attendance procedure — reduced drop-out rate — improved attendance — and a new August walk-through final registration procedure in effect. I certainly do not know who the philosopher was who said “change is certain” but West High is a living example of the truth of that statement.

To quote another old saying, “the more things seem to change, the more they are the same,” we find our fine faculty continuing to be a fine faculty. As our student body seems to change, we find that the same high quality students are attending West and participating actively in the programs of West High School. The parents’ support which has characterized West High School for many years continues to be exhibited through our West High Advisory Committee and the Dad’s Club as well as other advisory and booster groups. As our nation moves forward after its 200th birthday, West High School, as part of that nation, moves forward confident that we will cope with whatever the future holds in an honorable, honest and capable manner.

My best wishes to all of the citizens of West High School for the years ahead, and my thanks for your help in the year we are finishing.

ASSOCIATE PRINCIPAL
Mr. Wendall Smith

You are proud of West High. You should be! The excellent instructional program, the participation and dedication of students in the athletic programs and the outstanding performing arts programs are good reason for your pride. Also, the growing business, home economics, and industrial education departments together with the programs in ROTC, photography and cooperative education would make any school envious. The counselors, office personnel, security staff, cafeteria people and custodial staff are the best ever.

Your beautiful new Instructional Materials Center, the remodeled classrooms, the refrigeration and the fast-becoming-completed landscaping makes our campus look like new. For me, the best part of our school is you, the student. It is a pleasure to walk through the campus and corridors.

Giving the audience a lot to laugh about, the "brass" combo was another popular act at the choir follies.

No matter what time of day, the "wall" always attracts a variety of sitters who may have things to say or dream away.

In a usual spring happening, a few of the many girls who hoped to make the cheer line for 1977-78 line up to give the judges a final choice.

Something during the Freshmen class speeches keeps everyone laughing. Perhaps it's something Jan Wiechman said as she was telling about her qualifications.

After getting his face chip-dipped by Susie Mister, Mr. Mathews still seems to be having a good time on the C.B. club trip to Squaw Peak and Senator Barry Goldwater's home.

Shut-up and color day! Hand-coloring with oils, Mr. Z's 4th. hour advanced photography class members put the finishing touches on their personal photographs.

Due to the lack of space, Mr. Williams held his Free Enterprise and Government classes in the IMC this year. Part of the 6th. hour class is shown in this picture.

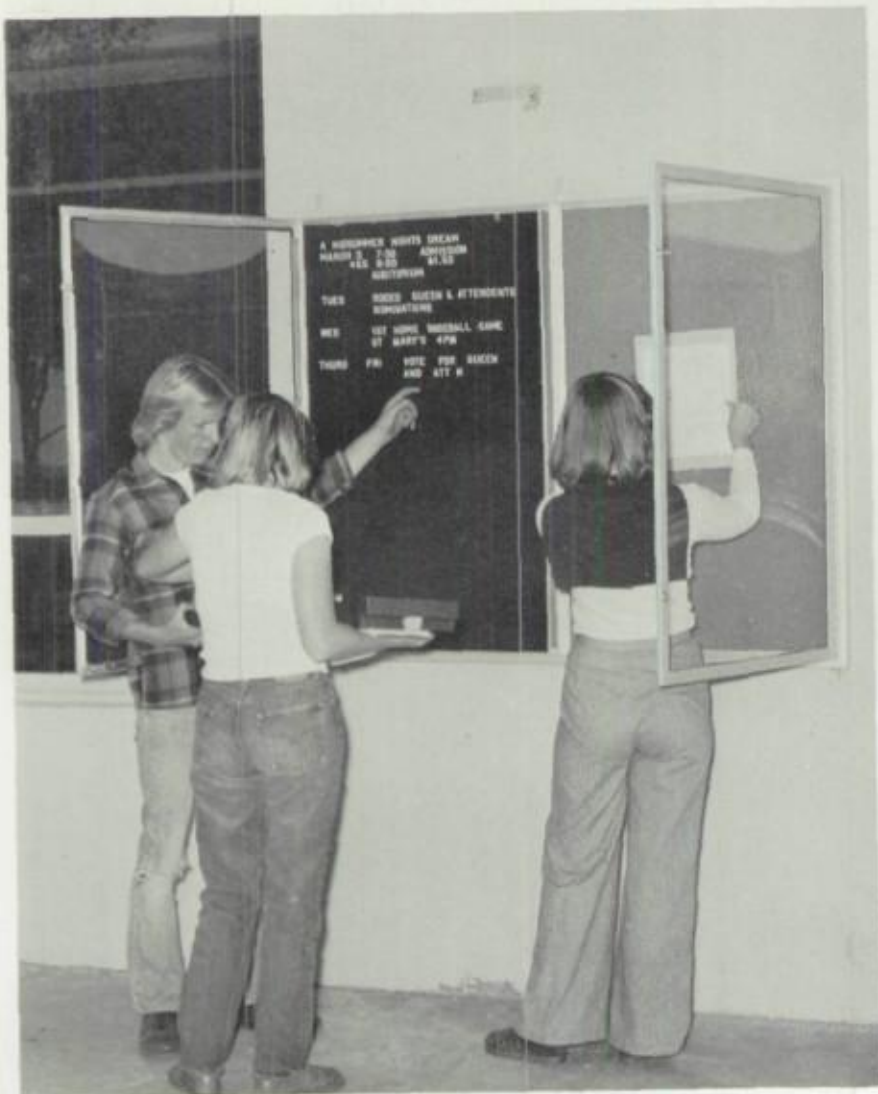

Kelly Jarmin gives the audience a "Jolson-Mammy" routine in the all-school choir follies in March. Willie Hintze, Ron McWilliams and James Chubinsky lend their support to Kelly's efforts.

"Take me next," James Vogel seems to be saying as Mr. Harold Hoel checks over one of the assignments completed by his first period world history students.

Record-setting, freshman wrestler Kerri Little throws a half-Nelson on teammate Mike Collard during a practice session. Little pinned eight opponents while the frosh team was scoring six wins in eleven matches.

Keeping the list of activities up to date on the new student bulletin board in the "munch" area was almost a full-time job.

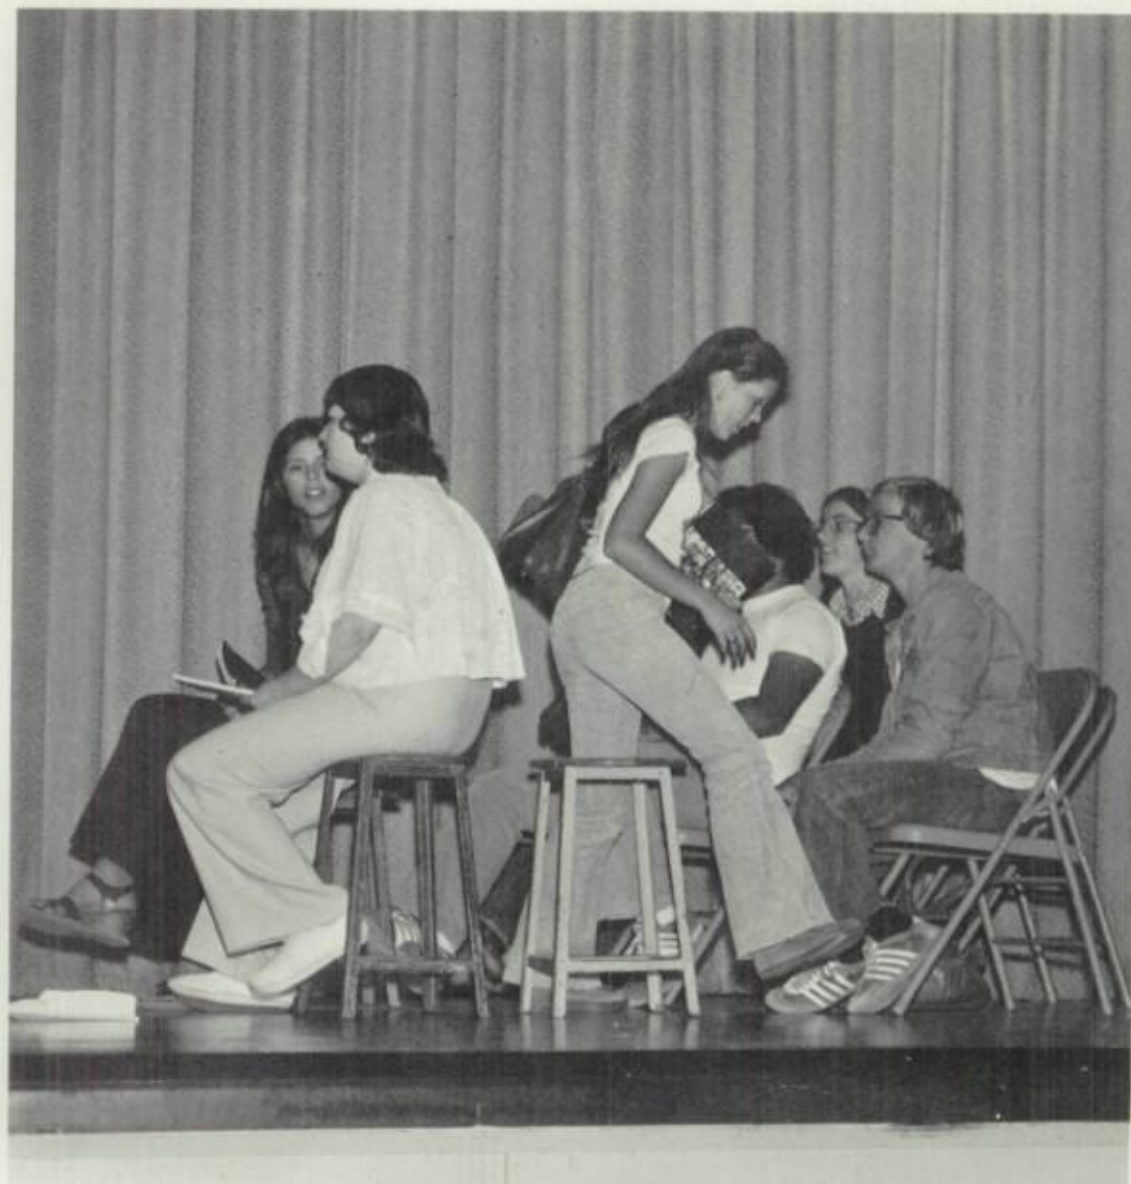

"At this rate, it'll take me forever to tunnel to China!"

Donna Kerwin and LeAnn Sietsema wait patiently while Simon Liu tries to get them in focus in the viewfinder. All three are working on an assignment for first period beginning photography.

P K Miller

In her election skit, Sherrill Miller uses some students to act out a classroom scene.

"Now if you're a good T-Bird, I'll bring you a few votes," says the good fairy to candidate Dawn Carpenter.

Kathleen Milo catches the audience's attention with a popular song during the choir follies.

Members of the Thunderbird C.B. club relax before the camera after enjoying lunch at Squaw Peak Park.

Winds and blowing dust were all a part of the school day. Soon the green grass will come again and hopefully cut down on the dust.

Repainting the classrooms was part of the reconstruction process that went on during the year.

The fairies of Titania's court sing a spell for their queen to keep away goblins, newts, spiders and hedgehogs.

Humor mixed with drama, Shakespearean style, was delightfully presented as the all-school play in March.

Appearing in the cast alphabetically were: Elizabeth Aguilar, Lori Anderson, Jeff Bombay, Will Bowen, Doug Clouse, Robert De Shazo, Paul Edgar, Celia English, Lona English, Lane Ferrin, Laurie Ferrin, Julie Fritts, Leslie Hendricks, Denise Herman, Duayne Horning, Bonnie Jakobek, Kelly Jarmin, Lance Kuester, Barbara Kocik, Scott Leiler, Selwyn Lewis, Mario Magana, Maureen Marshall, Sal Mastrapasqua, David Moreno, Diana Reveles, Denise Sieber, Lisa van der Steur, Andrea Voyce, Jon Voyce, Jeff Yoder and Jennifer Zaurbin.

Titania, Julie Fritts, gracefully puts a ring of flowers around Bottom, Mario Magana, her new-found love's head, with Peaseblossom scratching his ears.

A Midsummer Night's Dream

As the mechanicals from the town rehearse their play in the forest, Puck looks over their shoulders to try and stir up some mischief.

Lysander angrily tells Hermia that he no longer loves her, but Helenia, while Demetrius hangs loosely to Helenia, whom he loves so true.

"What Nymphs are these?" Duke Theseus, Scott Leiler, asks Hippolyta, the court and Egeus referring to Demetrius and Lysander who are asleep in the forest along with Bottom the weaver who is in front of a log.

Following the finale of dress rehearsal, the cast of the all school drama assembles for the yearbook photographer.

Yum, yum, yum! The pie eating contest was part of the Mat maids ice cream social held in the cafeteria. Mace Kuester and Annette Miller were the winners in boys and girls divisions.

Sitting at her neat desk, Miss Shirley Peebles, is preparing materials for the summer walk-through registration.

New scenes on campus! The old sun dial tower is rarely seen from the East side of the quad.

The lawns are barely dry before students take advantage of the winter grass in the quad area. Newly planted trees will soon make the campus more attractive.

Carl Bakemeir explains the finer points of the game to Richard Daley as Coach Williams intensely watches some of his players in the bull pen.

With that cast and crutches, all Craig Jones can do is watch and cheer his classmates during third period PE. Craig chipped his ankle while playing volleyball in the same class a few days before.

Making sure everything is set up just right, Mr. Larry Smith's metal shop students get ready to turn out their individual projects.

Wonder if anyone knows we're waiting? — or just what this line up is for. No one seems to be quite sure when they will fix the P.A. so the Sophomore speeches can begin.

By creating this homey atmosphere, Sydney Journal shows the student body still another way of getting votes in a class election.

Checking the roll, Lynn Peterson, Mrs. Van Quathem's 1st hour student assistant notes those class members who are missing that period.

Learning to use different shutter speeds to catch the action, students from Mr. Zimmerman's first period beginning photo class take shots of the moving cars on 19th Avenue.

Under Mr. Jack Hill's watchful eye, Alice Heckrotte, Rosie Amabisca and Cynthia Salas punched out library cards during 1st period data processing class.

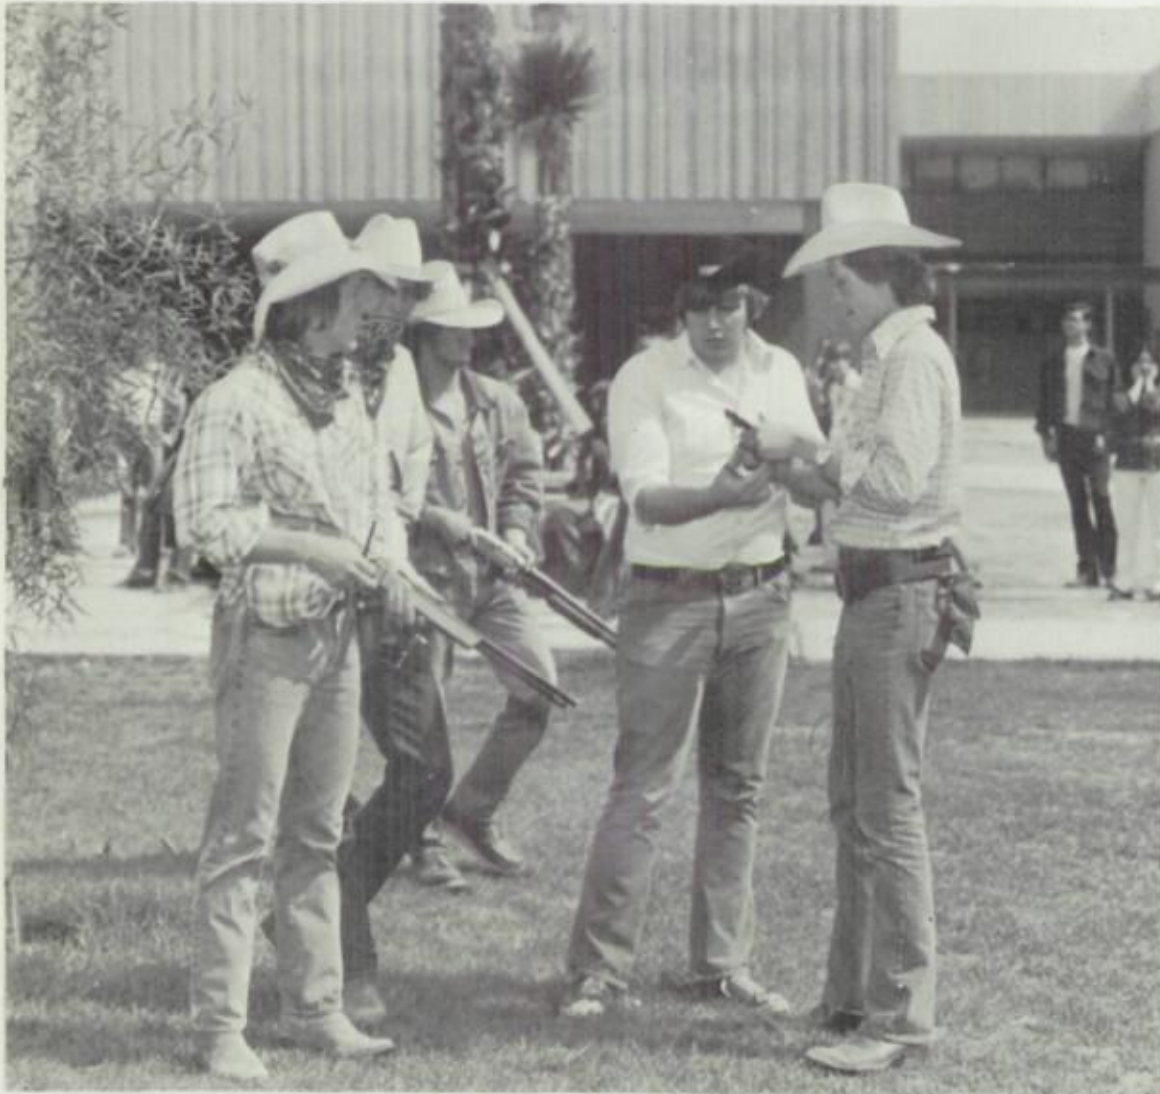

RODEO

Taking careful aim with his rifle, Steve Kline gets ready to drop another cowboy in the showdown during rodeo week.

"Heel and toe and away we go" — Pam Richards and Roxanne Richards cut a pattern as square dance performers.

Looking like a bunch right off the range, these cowboys load up for another "shoot out" in the showdown action.

Another type of entertainment during Western week was Joe Bethancourt's singing. Even in the cold wind, Joe had a big audience.

Whoever this cutie is, she's getting plenty of attention. I wonder how many votes she got for her four legs?

There was much more than square dancing going on at the Rodeo dance. This one might be for rain!!

Freddy Burrus tells a secret to Bob Carrillo while Steve makes sure that Linda wasn't going to be looking around as he pulls her hat over her eyes.

Terry Williams and her (seemingly) headless partner enjoy a dreamy slow number during the Rodeo dance.

Checking out those sexy legs of the candidates for Rodeo Queen and attendants before "paying" as voters are Mike Snyder, Russ Wortman and Alex Bassalay.

All these friends are wrapped up in the songs being played and sung by Joe Bethancourt during the first day of activities. He gained the attention of a large number of spectators during both lunch and after school.

Everybody is doing his own thing during one of the rock numbers at the Rodeo dance which highlighted the Western week's activities.

World Champion roper, J.W. Stoker, performs a giant loop trick during the first session of the rodeo assembly.

Bob Talman, president of American Rodeo Cowboys, gives facts about rodeos and the performers.

Mr. C.J. Johnson demonstrating the job case to students Ronald Kiel, Douglas Baker, Troy Marlowe and Russel Baird.

Mr. Hugh Hackett watching over his 6th hour Algebra and Calculus combined class during the third term examination.

Tension, smiles and general nervousness fill the air as these girls received their numbers for the cheer tryouts.

"Fashions in Vogue" was the theme for the Black Student Union's fashion show during Black Heritage Week at West High.

Are they talking to each other?

Annette Miller, Ramona Ferra and Marianne Curtis did their interpretation of a great little song in the auditorium during election speeches.

The audience was really jumping as they watched the action on stage during the Black Student Union assembly.

The Easter bulletin board in the registration office was the result of efforts by Alice Heckrotte who took time out from her other duties as student assistant.

Bob.

It's the end of Waste High and I'm glad! You made my 7th hr. very funny. And I'm glad I got to know better this year. And I had some fun times partying with you. I still have that picture you gave me. It's up in my room. Don't hesitate to call or come over anytime. Have a great summer. And don't ever lose your sense of humor.

Love Always
 J. Raven.

ACKNOWLEDGMENTS

This year, West High has changed quite a bit, and the purpose of this Edition of the WESTERNER is to store the memories of these many changes in the minds of the readers. Putting together a Yearbook is not an easy job but was made possible through the hard work of several people.

I would first like to sincerely thank Mr. Zimmerman for his help as advisor. We couldn't have done it without him pushing us on to make deadlines. I would also like to thank Mr. Agee for writing the sports copy and a great deal of the life cutlines; Walsworth Publishing Company for printing of the book; Joan Boss, the printer's representative, for encouraging us; Progress Litho for typesetting our copy in a hurry; Keith Cole for the excellent Senior color prints; Mike Morrison for alphabetizing the classes and Angie Copeland for doing a good job on the Index.

I would like to express my gratitude to the entire yearbook staff for their work throughout the year. Special thanks go to certain staffers who contributed a considerable amount of their free time to help with the book. These thanks go to Mike Morrison, Kevin Mercurio and Kathy Cullum.
